

To Whom It May Concern: Please do not allow banking groups to call former customers for up to 18 months. Why should the banking industry get special privileges? People have a right to privacy and if they are on a do not call list, they should not be bothered by telemarketers.